TOP 50 COURSES FOR WOMEN

EAGLE RIDGE GOLF CLUB Gilroy, California

Hole 12

LIKE ANY ART FORM, golf courses are a matter of taste. Some golfers prefer seaside courses, others parkland designs, still others the stark drama of a desert course. Whatever your aesthetic, a golf course should always be fun, but not simple; challenging, but not torturous. A course that offers opportunities for all skill levels is the essence of women-friendly golf. Add natural beauty and superb conditioning, and you've got Golf for Women's 50 best public and resort courses for women...

EAGLE RIDGE is a favorite of the Pacific Women's Golf Association and a 2001 U.S. Women's Amateur qualifying site. This beautiful course is a challenging design but has yardages for all women. The well-stocked pro shop carries great accessories, including Catherine Canino jewelry.

Beginners and women's classes are offered, as well as a Dave Pelz short game school.
